

Arlington Public Schools: Spanish 1

Learner Goals: Identity: Me in the World

Essential Question: Who am I in the world?

I can: (9 goals @ 11.1%)	Associated grammar & vocabulary:	How to Practice:	Textbook Pages	Not Yet	With Help	Yes!	Showed on check-in (date)
I can introduce myself and greet others.	llamarse (to be called), ser (to be), subjects/verbs/subject pronouns	Quizlet flashcards (greetings, etc.) Introduce yourself. Say hello and goodbye to someone else.	6-8; 10 12 14
I can ask and say who someone is and how they are doing.	interrogative pronouns	Quizlet flashcards (greetings, etc.) Point to someone and say who they are. Ask someone how they are doing.	8 10
I can describe myself and others.	ser (to be), adjective agreement	Quizlet flashcards (adjectives, etc.) Describe yourself and other people. What are they like?	44-45 48 50
I can ask and answer basic questions about myself and other people.	interrogative pronouns, the preposition de (from/of)	Quizlet flashcards (question words) Ask a few different questions to other people about themselves.	116 8 19 45 47
I can tell things that I like and ask what other people like.	gustar (to like), pronouns with gustar nouns and definite articles	Quizlet flashcards (food, activities, etc.) Say a few things that you like and do not like to eat or do. Ask a few people what they like and do not like to eat or do.	62
I can provide factual information about myself and other people.		Say things about yourself, such as your age, birthday, phone number, where you're from, etc. Say the same things about someone else.	11 19 21 23
I can read and summarize factual information about other people.		Practice reading ID cards from other countries and descriptions of other people, then write down facts you learn about the person.
I can write using correct Spanish punctuation and accents.	punctuation marks and written accents	Practice writing exclamation points, question marks, and using accents when writing Spanish.	26
I can identify major Spanish-speaking countries.		Looking at a blank map of the Spanish-speaking world and practice filling in the countries.	R2-R6				